A certified consumer credit counselor will review all action plans for all counselors training to be certified.

Services may include a brief review of your housing situation. The review may result in an overview of government sponsored housing programs. If appropriate, services may be included under HUD/Government grants.

Your privacy is one of our highest concerns. To review our privacy policy, please visit us online at <http://www.consumercreditbuffalo.org/resources/privacy.php>

Services are offered without regard to ability to pay and services will not be withheld because of inability to pay. A fee waiver may be obtained in cases of specific hardship based upon income and must be verified by presentment of pay stubs and/or other proof of income.

Most of the Agency funding comes from voluntary contributions from creditors who participate in the Creditor Repayment Plan (CRP).

Since creditors have a financial interest in getting paid, most are willing to make a contribution to help fund our agency. These contributions are usually calculated by each creditor as a percentage of the payment (up to 15%) of each payment received. However, your accounts with your creditors will always be credited with one hundred percent (100%) of the amount you pay through us, and we will work with all of your creditors regardless of whether they contribute to our agency.

You will be provided a written assessment outlining a suggested client action plan which will be based on the following options:

- a) You will handle any financial concerns on your own.
- b) Enrollment in a Creditor Repayment Plan (CRP), is an option but may not be suitable for everyone. Our CRP's are a voluntary program which serve a dual role of helping you repay your debts and helping the creditors to receive the money owed to them. Your participation in a debt repayment program may change information which is already on your credit report. If your credit report reflects that you have paid creditors as agreed in the past, a CRP could have a negative impact on a creditworthiness decision by a potential creditor, landlord, or employer in the future. In addition, creditors may report that you are on a CRP and are not paying as originally agreed although they have accepted the reduced payment.
- c) Seek legal advice regarding your financial situation. Counselors may answer general questions regarding bankruptcy but cannot provide legal advice. You should be aware that debts to creditors you repay through the plan may be able to be discharged through bankruptcy. Bankruptcy is a personal choice based on individual circumstances.
- d) You may be referred to the other services of the organization services (Bankruptcy Counseling, Financial Counseling, Credit Report Review Session, Budgeting Session, Financial Education Workshops) or other agencies as appropriate that may be able to assist with particular problems that have been identified. You have the right to use or reject referrals offered, if any.
